

We are following the ADA and Ohio State Dental Boards recommendation and are closing the office for the next three weeks. We hope to reopen on April 7th but will reassess the situation at that time. We value the health and wellbeing of all of our patients. I will be on call for true dental emergencies for healthy patients. Stay safe and healthy.

Dr. Megan Shiga