Dear Patients,

I am writing this letter to you to share some exciting news. After practicing dentistry for 38 years, I have decided to announce my semi-retirement. Under normal circumstances, this would be a very difficult decision as one of my main concerns would be finding the right individual to continue your dental care.

However, after a long and careful search, I have found the right dentist to join my practice. He is Dr. Paul Chon, a caring talented and compassionate professional, who shares my commitment to exemplary dentistry. I am confident that you will continue to receive the highest quality of dentistry.

Dr. Chon is a graduate of University of Southern California School of Dentistry. He has been practicing for 12 years. Dr. Chon and I met in 2002 and he has been practicing in the same building for last 7 years. He is highly skilled in all aspects of general, cosmetic and restorative dentistry. Dr. Chon and his wife, Terry, reside in Orange with their children.

Dr. Chon and I will be practicing together at his office that is more conveniently located on the second floor of the same building. I feel confident that you will be pleased with Dr. Chon and will extend to him the same courtesy and loyalty that you have afforded me over these many years.

Dr. Chon and I have worked closely together to ensure a smooth transition in response to your specific needs. We gladly will answer any of your questions about the transition in the weeks ahead.

Finally, thank you for trust and loyalty these many years. I consider each of you a dear friend, and I encourage you to welcome Dr. Chon to our office.

Sincerely yours,

James Chen
